

Help us give pupils in our schools The best start in life!

We are seeking people from a wide range of cultural and professional backgrounds to be governors in Church of England schools

For more information on being a school governor or academy trustee:

Becoming a Governor - London Diocesan Board for Schools \(ldbs.co.uk\)

For vacancies near you:

School Governor and Academy Trustee Vacancies - London Diocesan Board for Schools \(ldbs.co.uk\)

What's it like being a church school governor?

- “It is wonderful to be able to use my professional experience in a practical outworking of my faith and support the incredible work of our teachers and staff.” Governor in Enfield
- “I really enjoy using my strategic and analytical gifts on behalf of pupils and teachers – it’s an expression of my faith to give back in this way, and to see answers to prayer in the life of the school.” Governor in Hanworth
- “Being a school governor is a deeply rewarding role. It allows me to combine professional skills with an extension of my faith in supporting children and the adults who care for them.” Governor in Chiswick