GREIG CITY ACADEMY

Job Description

This Job Description sets out in general terms the management, purpose and responsibilities of a specific job at GCA. It is not intended to be a comprehensive listing of every task that a GCA employee might be called upon to undertake. It is not a legal document, although it may be referred to in the Contract of Employment.

Job Title: English Teacher

Faculty: English

Responsible to: Head of Faculty

Hours: This is a full-time post. Salary: Inner London Pay Scale

Duties and Responsibilities

You will:

- be fully aware of, understand and carry out duties in accordance with the school's policies and procedures relating to Child Protection, health and safety, confidentiality and data protection and specifically in accordance with 'Keeping Children Safe In Education', and report all concerns to the named Child Protection contacts.
- 2. support the school's equal opportunities policy and support difference, ensuring each child has equal access to opportunities to learn and develop.
- 3. establish good relationships with pupils, acting as a role model and being aware of and responding appropriately to the needs of individual pupils.
- 4. support the school's Christian ethos and work positively and supportively in accordance with the school's plans, policies and procedures.
- 5. develop and maintain effective and positive working relationships with all staff, parents/carers and the wider community.
- 6. participate in training and other learning activities as required and attend appropriate professional development courses as identified through post-holder's training needs analysis.
- 7. ensure that the post-holder's line manager is made aware and kept fully informed of any concerns which the post-holder may have in relation to safeguarding and/or child protection.
- 8. be responsible for your personal professional development and participate in the school's scheme for Performance Management.
- 9. promote and celebrate the successes of the school and foster a positive image to the local community.
- 10. model excellent professional conduct with colleagues, students and the wider community, demonstrating high personal standards.

Duties and Responsibilities Specific to This Post

1. Curriculum Management

You will:

- 1.1. teach English at Key Stages 3, 4 and 5
- 1.2. assist in the preparation, reviewing and evaluation of units of work within the English Faculty
- 1.3. promote the highest standards of achievement for all students with particular regard for those in your classes and tutor group
- 1.4. assess, record and report students' achievements in accordance with Academy and departmental policies
- 1.5. establish positive relationships with students, parents and colleagues
- 1.6. ensure that every student has access to appropriately challenging and stimulating teaching and learning resources
- 1.7. insist upon and demonstrate the highest standards of personal conduct and self-responsibility from students
- 1.8. ensure up—to-date assessment information (both formative and summative) is completed on individual students and updated half termly or as and when required
- 1.9. prepare reports for both teaching staff and parents on individual students' progress
- 1.10. attend parents' evenings to discuss progress of students
- 1.11. manage resources effectively
- 1.12. participate in induction and appraisal systems and other inset and training provided by the school and other training agencies
- 1.13. acknowledge and act upon the necessity for personal professional development
- 1.14. develop professional skills and competencies
- 1.15. follow all policies and procedures of the school and Year Team (where appropriate) including all aspects of examinations and assessment, recording and reporting of achievement, attendance and punctuality, uniform and behaviour
- 1.16. complete tasks as directed by the Head of Faculty

2. Student Management

You will:

- 2.1. set the highest expectations of standards of achievement and behaviour within the department, faculty and the wider school
- 2.2. identify students with particular needs and liaise with colleagues to ensure that individual student needs are met
- 2.3. monitor and review students' progress and implement changes to ensure that students achieve their full potential in the integrated curriculum
- 2.4. celebrate and promote student achievement and success
- 2.5. act as a form tutor if required with a commitment to pastoral work

3. Competencies

As contained in the National Standards

4. Attendance at meetings

You will attend faculty and all other meetings appropriate to the agreed areas of responsibility

5. Other

Any other duties which may, from time to time, reasonably be required within the level of responsibility of the post and any other professional duties as directed by the Principal.

6. Ethos

The Academy celebrates its place in a multi-cultural and multi-faith community. As a Church of England school, everything we do is underpinned by simple Christian values – values shared by those of other faiths and those with no religious faith and values which provide a moral framework for young people. A central thread in our collective worship policy is to help our students 'to develop an enquiring mind and express and explore their own views openly and honestly'.

GCA has a commitment to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and has safer recruitment procedures in place for the selection of staff. It is committed to the principle of equal opportunities; we welcome all applicants and value the diversity they bring.

This job description will be reviewed as part of the appraisal process to reflect changing school, faculty and individual needs.

The duties and responsibilities of the post are to be carried out within the provisions of the School Teachers' Pay and Conditions Document and the Greig City Academy contract.

February 2024

Person Specification

Good degree in the relevant subject Courses of further study relevant to the post Evidence of pro-active commitment to personal and professional development throughout your career Evidence of relevant training Teaching Quality and Experience Experience of teaching at KS3, GCSE and A level Good general knowledge of the National Curriculum, assessment arrangements and approaches, especially literacy assessment Be an excellent classroom teacher, comfortable as an exemplar to other staff, with a love for your subject and the ability to inspire and motivate students in all aspects of their learning so that they become effective, independent learners Ability to keep clear records of pupil progress, recording the data generated by assessments Knowledge of effective record keeping and its use to promote the educational and personal development of students Be committed to raising the aspirations and achievement of all pupils and able to demonstrate effective strategies for doing so Good awareness of current educational developments Be an enthusiastic and effective form tutor Skills, Personal Qualities and Disposition A commitment to the protection and safeguarding of children and young people, and to ensuring their well-being and achievement Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents, staff and the wider school community Excellent time texeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage as fluctuating workload Be able to tower flexibly and as part of a team Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage as fluctuating workload Be able to tower flexibly and as part of a team Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage as fluctuating workload Be able to tearly demonstrate that you are committed to	Qualifications and Training	Essential	Desirable
Courses of further study relevant to the post Evidence of pro-active commitment to personal and professional development throughout your career Evidence of relevant training Facching Quality and Experience Experience of teaching at KS3, GCSE and A level Good general knowledge of the National Curriculum, assessment arrangements and approaches, especially literacy assessment Be an excellent classroom teacher, comfortable as an exemplar to other staff, with a love for your subject and the ability to inspire and motivate students in all aspects of herie learning so that they become effective, independent learners Ability to plan lessons effectively and have sound understanding of strategies to raise attainment. Ability to keep clear records of pupil progress, recording the data generated by assessments Knowledge of effective record keeping and its use to promote the educational and personal development of students Excellent to raising the aspirations and achievement of all pupils and able to demonstrate effective strategies for doing so Good awareness of current educational developments Be an enthusiastic and effective form tutor Skills, Personal Qualities and Disposition A commitment to the protection and safeguarding of children and young people, and to ensuring their well-boing and achievement Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents, staff and the wider school community. Excellent communication skills: be able to communicate clearly, both orally and in writing, with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload to a second part of a team Excelle	Qualified Teacher Status	✓
Evidence of pro-active commitment to personal and professional development throughout your career Evidence of relevant training Teaching Quality and Experience Experience of teaching at KS3, GCSE and A level Good general knowledge of the National Curriculum, assessment arrangements and approaches, especially literacy assessment Be an excellent classroom teacher, comfontable as an exemplar to other staff, with a love for your subject and the ability to inspire and motivate students in all aspects of their learning so that they become effective, independent learners attainment. Ability to bean lessons effectively and have sound understanding of strategies to raise attainment. Ability to bean tessons effectively and have sound understanding of strategies to raise attainment. Ability to bean lessons effectively and have sound understanding of strategies to raise attainment. Ability to bean lessons effectively and have sound understanding of strategies to raise attainment. Knowledge of effective record keeping and its use to promote the educational and personal development of students Be committed to raising the aspirations and achievement of all pupils and able to demonstrate effective strategies for doing so Good awareness of current educational developments Be an enthusiastic and effective form tutor Skills, Personal Qualities and Disposition A commitment to the protection and safeguarding of children and young people, and to ensuring their well-being and achievement Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents, staff and the wider school community Excellent communication skills: be able to communicate clearly, both orally and in writing, with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment Excellent three keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload Be able to work flexi	Good degree in the relevant subject	✓
Treaching Quality and Experience Experience of relevant training Teaching Quality and Experience Experience of teaching at KS3, GCSE and A level Experience of teaching at KS3, GCSE and A level Good general knowledge of the National Curriculum, assessment arrangements and approaches, especially literacy assessment Be an excellent classroom teacher, comfortable as an exemplar to other staff, with a love for your subject and the ability to inspire and motivate students in all aspects of their learning so that they become effective, independent learners Ability to plan lessons effectively and have sound understanding of strategies to raise attainment. Ability to keep clear records of pupil progress, recording the data generated by assessments Knowledge of effective record keeping and its use to promote the educational and personal development of students Excellent for raising the aspirations and achievement of all pupils and able to demonstrate effective strategies for doing so Good awareness of current educational developments Be an enthusiastic and effective form tutor Skills, Personal Qualities and Disposition A commitment to the protection and safeguarding of children and young people, and to ensuring their well-being and achievement Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents, staff and the wider school community Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents, staff and the wider school community Excellent communication skills: be able to community and in writing, with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team Excellent Communication skills and a part of a team Excellent for professional conduct, and be able to show	Courses of further study relevant to the post		✓
Teaching Quality and Experience Experience of teaching at KS3, GCSE and A level Coord general knowledge of the National Curriculum, assessment arrangements and approaches, especially literacy assessment Be an excellent classroom teacher, comfortable as an exemplar to other staff, with a love for your subject and the ability to inspire and motivate students in all aspects of their learning so that they become effective, independent learners Ability to plan lessons effectively and have sound understanding of strategies to raise attainment. Ability to keep clear records of pupil progress, recording the data generated by assessments Be committed to raising the aspirations and achievement of all pupils and able to demonstrate effective strategies for doing so Good awareness of current educational developments Be an enthusiastic and effective form tutor Skills, Personal Qualities and Disposition A commitment to the protection and safeguarding of children and young people, and to ensuring their well-being and achievement Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents, staff and the wider school community Excellent communication skills: be able to community Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and writing, with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment Excellent Communication skills to be able to communicate clearly, both orally and in writing, with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and a ware of situations Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team Excellent torn skills: have the ability to use them as a teaching tool as well as for administrative purposes Be reflective and sh	Evidence of pro-active commitment to personal and professional development throughout your career	✓
Experience of teaching at KS3, GCSE and A level Good general knowledge of the National Curriculum, assessment arrangements and approaches, especially literacy assessment Be an excellent classroom teacher, comfortable as an exemplar to other staff, with a love for your subject and the ability to inspire and motivate students in all aspects of their learning so that they become effective, independent learners Ability to plan lessons effectively and have sound understanding of strategies to raise attainment. Ability to plan lessons effectively and have sound understanding of strategies to raise attainment. Ability to plan lessons effectively and have sound understanding of strategies to raise attainment. Ability to plan lessons effectively and have sound understanding of strategies to raise attainment. Ability to plan lessons effectively and have sound understanding of strategies to raise attainment. Ability to plan lessons effectively and have sound understanding of strategies to raise attainment. Ability to plan lessons effectively and list use to promote the educational and personal development of students Be committed to raising the aspirations and achievement of all pupils and able to demonstrate effective strategies for doing so Good awareness of current educational developments Be an enthusiastic and effective form tutor Skills, Personal Qualities and Disposition A commitment to the protection and saleguarding of children and young people, and to ensuring their well-being and achievement Excellent represens alskills and the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents, staff and the wider school community Excellent communication skills: be able to communicate clearly, both orally and in writing, with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment Excellent iter keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload Be able	Evidence of relevant training		✓
Good general knowledge of the National Curriculum, assessment arrangements and approaches, especially literacy assessment Be an excellent classroom teacher, comfortable as an exemplar to other staff, with a love for your subject and the ability to inspire and motivate students in all aspects of their learning so that they become effective, independent learners Ability to plan lessons effectively and have sound understanding of strategies to raise attainment. Ability to keep clear records of pupil progress, recording the data generated by assessments Knowledge of effective record keeping and its use to promote the educational and personal development of students Be committed to raising the aspirations and achievement of all pupils and able to demonstrate effective strategies for doing so Good awareness of current educational developments Be an enthusiastic and effective form tutor Skills, Personal Qualities and Disposition A commitment to the protection and safeguarding of children and young people, and to ensuring their well-being and achievement Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment Excellent to the keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team Excellent to Tisk skills have the ability to use them as a teaching tool as well as for administrative purposes Be reflective and show the ability to use them as a teaching tool as well as for administrative purposes Be reflective and show the ability to analyse personal performance and that of others in a variety of situations Have strong personal values, such as honesty and integrity, that provide a clear moral framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school Be willing to contri	Teaching Quality and Experience	Essential	Desirable
Be an excellent classroom teacher, comfortable as an exemplar to other staff, with a love for your subject and the ability to inspire and motivate students in all aspects of their learning so that they become effective, independent learners Ability to plan lessons effectively and have sound understanding of strategies to raise attainment. Ability to plan lessons effectively and have sound understanding of strategies to raise attainment. Ability to keep clear records of pupil progress, recording the data generated by assessments Knowledge of effective record keeping and its use to promote the educational and personal development of students Excommitted to raising the aspirations and achievement of all pupils and able to demonstrate effective strategies for doing so Good awareness of current educational developments Be an enthusiastic and effective form tutor Skills, Personal Qualities and Disposition A commitment to the protection and safeguarding of children and young people, and to ensuring their well-being and achievement Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents, staff and the wider school community Excellent communication skills: be able to communicate clearly, both orally and in writing, with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team Excellent CT skills: have the ability to analyse personal performance and that of others in a variety of situations Have strong personal values, such as honesty and integrity, that provide a clear moral framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school Be willing to contribute to the school's enrichment and extra-curricular programmes For professional conduct, and be a	Experience of teaching at KS3, GCSE and A level	✓
love for your subject and the ability to inspire and motivate students in all aspects of the their learning so that they become effective, independent learners Ability to plan lessons effectively and have sound understanding of strategies to raise attainment. Ability to keep clear records of pupil progress, recording the data generated by assessments Knowledge of effective record keeping and its use to promote the educational and personal development of students Be committed to raising the aspirations and achievement of all pupils and able to demonstrate effective strategies for doing so Good awareness of current educational developments Be an enthusiastic and effective form tutor Skills, Personal Qualities and Disposition A commitment to the protection and safeguarding of children and young people, and to ensuring their well-being and achievement Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents, staff and the wider school community Excellent communication skills: be able to communicate clearly, both orally and in writing, with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team Excellent ICT skills: have the ability to use them as a teaching tool as well as for administrative purposes Be reflective and show the ability to analyse personal performance and that of others in a variety of situations Have strong personal values, such as honesty and integrity, that provide a clear moral framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school's enrichment and extra-curricular programmes Be reflective and show the ability to analyse personal performance and that of others in a variety of situations Be able to demonstrat	Good general knowledge of the National Curriculum, assessment arrangements and approaches, especially literacy assessment	✓
attainment. Ability to keep clear records of pupil progress, recording the data generated by assessments Knowledge of effective record keeping and its use to promote the educational and personal development of students Be committed to raising the aspirations and achievement of all pupils and able to demonstrate effective strategies for doing so Good awareness of current educational developments Be an enthusiastic and effective form tutor Skills, Personal Qualities and Disposition A commitment to the protection and safeguarding of children and young people, and to ensuring their well-being and achievement Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents, staff and the wider school community Excellent communication skills: be able to communicate clearly, both orally and in writing, with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team Excellent ICT skills: have the ability to use them as a teaching tool as well as for administrative purposes Be reflective and show the ability to analyse personal performance and that of others in a varriety of situations Have strong personal values, such as honesty and integrity, that provide a clear moral framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school Be willing to contribute to the school's enrichment and extra-curricular programmes Be prepared to undertake appropriate training for the post and a willingness to continue training to manage the key areas and tasks outlined in the job description Equalities and Safer Recruitment Essential Desirable Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of h	Be an excellent classroom teacher, comfortable as an exemplar to other staff, with a love for your subject and the ability to inspire and motivate students in all aspects of their learning so that they become effective, independent learners	√
Assessments Knowledge of effective record keeping and its use to promote the educational and personal development of students Be committed to raising the aspirations and achievement of all pupils and able to demonstrate effective strategies for doing so Good awareness of current educational developments Be an enthusiastic and effective form tutor Skills, Personal Qualities and Disposition A commitment to the protection and safeguarding of children and young people, and to ensuring their well-being and achievement Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents, staff and the wider school community Excellent communication skills: be able to communicate clearly, both orally and in writing, with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team Excellent ICT skills: have the ability to use them as a teaching tool as well as for administrative purposes Be reflective and show the ability to analyse personal performance and that of others in a variety of situations Have strong personal values, such as honesty and integrity, that provide a clear moral framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school Be willing to contribute to the school's enrichment and extra-curricular programmes Fee prepared to undertake appropriate training for the post and a willingness to continue training to manage the key areas and tasks outlined in the job description Equalities and Safer Recruitment Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of how this can be positively promoted within the school environment, both to students and staff Be able to demonstrate	Ability to plan lessons effectively and have sound understanding of strategies to raise attainment.	✓
Be committed to raising the aspirations and achievement of all pupils and able to demonstrate effective strategies for doing so Good awareness of current educational developments Be an enthusiastic and effective form tutor Skills, Personal Qualities and Disposition A commitment to the protection and safeguarding of children and young people, and to ensuring their well-being and achievement Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents, staff and the wider school community Excellent communication skills: be able to communicate clearly, both orally and in writing, with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team Excellent ICT skills: have the ability to use them as a teaching tool as well as for administrative purposes Be reflective and show the ability to analyse personal performance and that of others in a variety of situations Have strong personal values, such as honesty and integrity, that provide a clear moral framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school Be willing to contribute to the school's enrichment and extra-curricular programmes Be prepared to undertake appropriate training for the post and a willingness to continue training to manage the key areas and tasks outlined in the job description Equalities and Safer Recruitment Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of how this can be positively promoted within the school environment, both to students and staff Be able to demonstrate an understanding of the importance of forming and maintaining appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children an	Ability to keep clear records of pupil progress, recording the data generated by assessments	✓
demonstrate effective strategies for doing so Good awareness of current educational developments Be an enthusiastic and effective form tutor Skills, Personal Qualities and Disposition A commitment to the protection and safeguarding of children and young people, and to ensuring their well-being and achievement Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents, staff and the wider school community Excellent communication skills: be able to communicate clearly, both orally and in writing, with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team Excellent ICT skills: have the ability to use them as a teaching tool as well as for administrative purposes Be reflective and show the ability to analyse personal performance and that of others in a variety of situations Have strong personal values, such as honesty and integrity, that provide a clear moral framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school Be willing to contribute to the school's enrichment and extra-curricular programmes Be prepared to undertake appropriate training for the post and a willingness to continue training to manage the key areas and tasks outlined in the job description Equalities and Safer Recruitment Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of the with can be positively promoted within the school environment, both to students and staff Be able to demonstrate an understanding of the importance of forming and maintaining appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people	Knowledge of effective record keeping and its use to promote the educational and personal development of students	✓
Be an enthusiastic and effective form tutor Skills, Personal Qualities and Disposition A commitment to the protection and safeguarding of children and young people, and to ensuring their well-being and achievement Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents, staff and the wider school community Excellent communication skills: be able to communicate clearly, both orally and in writing, with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team Excellent ICT skills: have the ability to use them as a teaching tool as well as for administrative purposes Be reflective and show the ability to analyse personal performance and that of others in a variety of situations Have strong personal values, such as honesty and integrity, that provide a clear moral framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school Be willing to contribute to the school's enrichment and extra-curricular programmes Be prepared to undertake appropriate training for the post and a willingness to continue training to manage the key areas and tasks outlined in the job description Equalities and Safer Recruitment Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of how this can be positively promoted within the school to students and staff Be able to demonstrate an understanding of the importance of forming and maintaining appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people	Be committed to raising the aspirations and achievement of all pupils and able to demonstrate effective strategies for doing so	✓
Skills, Personal Qualities and Disposition A commitment to the protection and safeguarding of children and young people, and to ensuring their well-being and achievement Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents, staff and the wider school community Excellent communication skills: be able to communicate clearly, both orally and in writing, with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team Excellent ICT skills: have the ability to use them as a teaching tool as well as for administrative purposes Be reflective and show the ability to analyse personal performance and that of others in a variety of situations Have strong personal values, such as honesty and integrity, that provide a clear moral framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school Be willing to contribute to the school's enrichment and extra-curricular programmes Be prepared to undertake appropriate training for the post and a willingness to continue training to manage the key areas and tasks outlined in the job description Equalities and Safer Recruitment Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of how this can be positively promoted within the school to tstudents and staff Be able to demonstrate an understanding of the importance of forming and maintaining appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people	Good awareness of current educational developments	✓
A commitment to the protection and safeguarding of children and young people, and to ensuring their well-being and achievement Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents, staff and the wider school community Excellent communication skills: be able to communicate clearly, both orally and in writing, with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team Excellent ICT skills: have the ability to use them as a teaching tool as well as for administrative purposes Be reflective and show the ability to analyse personal performance and that of others in a variety of situations Have strong personal values, such as honesty and integrity, that provide a clear moral framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school Be willing to contribute to the school's enrichment and extra-curricular programmes Be prepared to undertake appropriate training for the post and a willingness to continue training to manage the key areas and tasks outlined in the job description Equalities and Safer Recruitment Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of how this can be positively promoted within the school environment, both to students and staff Be able to demonstrate an understanding of the importance of forming and maintaining appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people	Be an enthusiastic and effective form tutor	✓
Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents, staff and the wider school community Excellent communication skills: be able to communicate clearly, both orally and in writing, with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team Excellent ICT skills: have the ability to use them as a teaching tool as well as for administrative purposes Be reflective and show the ability to analyse personal performance and that of others in a variety of situations Have strong personal values, such as honesty and integrity, that provide a clear moral framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school Be willing to contribute to the school's enrichment and extra-curricular programmes Be prepared to undertake appropriate training for the post and a willingness to continue training to manage the key areas and tasks outlined in the job description Equalities and Safer Recruitment Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of how this can be positively promoted within the school environment, both to students and staff Be able to demonstrate an understanding of the importance of forming and maintaining appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people	Skills, Personal Qualities and Disposition	Essential	Desirable
Excellent communication skills: be able to communicate clearly, both orally and in writing, with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team Excellent ICT skills: have the ability to use them as a teaching tool as well as for administrative purposes Be reflective and show the ability to analyse personal performance and that of others in a variety of situations Have strong personal values, such as honesty and integrity, that provide a clear moral framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school Be willing to contribute to the school's enrichment and extra-curricular programmes Be prepared to undertake appropriate training for the post and a willingness to continue training to manage the key areas and tasks outlined in the job description Equalities and Safer Recruitment Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of how this can be positively promoted within the school environment, both to students and staff Be able to demonstrate an understanding of the importance of forming and maintaining appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people	A commitment to the protection and safeguarding of children and young people, and to ensuring their well-being and achievement	✓
writing, with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team Excellent ICT skills: have the ability to use them as a teaching tool as well as for administrative purposes Be reflective and show the ability to analyse personal performance and that of others in a variety of situations Have strong personal values, such as honesty and integrity, that provide a clear moral framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school Be willing to contribute to the school's enrichment and extra-curricular programmes Be prepared to undertake appropriate training for the post and a willingness to continue training to manage the key areas and tasks outlined in the job description Equalities and Safer Recruitment Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of how this can be positively promoted within the school environment, both to students and staff Be able to demonstrate an understanding of the importance of forming and maintaining appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people	Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to build positive relationships with students, parents, staff and the wider school community	✓
learning environment Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team Excellent ICT skills: have the ability to use them as a teaching tool as well as for administrative purposes Be reflective and show the ability to analyse personal performance and that of others in a variety of situations Have strong personal values, such as honesty and integrity, that provide a clear moral framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school Be willing to contribute to the school's enrichment and extra-curricular programmes Be prepared to undertake appropriate training for the post and a willingness to continue training to manage the key areas and tasks outlined in the job description Equalities and Safer Recruitment Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of how this can be positively promoted within the school environment, both to students and staff Be able to demonstrate an understanding of the importance of forming and maintaining appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people	Excellent communication skills: be able to communicate clearly, both orally and in writing, with students, parents and carers, colleagues and other professionals	✓
manage a fluctuating workload Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team Excellent ICT skills: have the ability to use them as a teaching tool as well as for administrative purposes Be reflective and show the ability to analyse personal performance and that of others in a variety of situations Have strong personal values, such as honesty and integrity, that provide a clear moral framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school Be willing to contribute to the school's enrichment and extra-curricular programmes Be prepared to undertake appropriate training for the post and a willingness to continue training to manage the key areas and tasks outlined in the job description Equalities and Safer Recruitment Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of how this can be positively promoted within the school environment, both to students and staff Be able to demonstrate an understanding of the importance of forming and maintaining appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people	Have good organisational skills to create and maintain a stimulating and attractive learning environment	✓
Excellent ICT skills: have the ability to use them as a teaching tool as well as for administrative purposes Be reflective and show the ability to analyse personal performance and that of others in a variety of situations Have strong personal values, such as honesty and integrity, that provide a clear moral framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school Be willing to contribute to the school's enrichment and extra-curricular programmes Be prepared to undertake appropriate training for the post and a willingness to continue training to manage the key areas and tasks outlined in the job description Equalities and Safer Recruitment Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of how this can be positively promoted within the school environment, both to students and staff Be able to demonstrate an understanding of the importance of forming and maintaining appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people	Excellent time keeping skills, with a demonstrable ability to meet deadlines and manage a fluctuating workload	✓
Be reflective and show the ability to analyse personal performance and that of others in a variety of situations Have strong personal values, such as honesty and integrity, that provide a clear moral framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school Be willing to contribute to the school's enrichment and extra-curricular programmes Be prepared to undertake appropriate training for the post and a willingness to continue training to manage the key areas and tasks outlined in the job description Equalities and Safer Recruitment Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of how this can be positively promoted within the school environment, both to students and staff Be able to demonstrate an understanding of the importance of forming and maintaining appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people	Be able to work flexibly and as part of a team	✓
A variety of situations Have strong personal values, such as honesty and integrity, that provide a clear moral framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school Be willing to contribute to the school's enrichment and extra-curricular programmes Be prepared to undertake appropriate training for the post and a willingness to continue training to manage the key areas and tasks outlined in the job description Equalities and Safer Recruitment Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of how this can be positively promoted within the school environment, both to students and staff Be able to demonstrate an understanding of the importance of forming and maintaining appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people	Excellent ICT skills: have the ability to use them as a teaching tool as well as for administrative purposes	✓
framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school Be willing to contribute to the school's enrichment and extra-curricular programmes Be prepared to undertake appropriate training for the post and a willingness to continue training to manage the key areas and tasks outlined in the job description Equalities and Safer Recruitment Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of how this can be positively promoted within the school environment, both to students and staff Be able to demonstrate an understanding of the importance of forming and maintaining appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people	Be reflective and show the ability to analyse personal performance and that of others in a variety of situations	✓
Be prepared to undertake appropriate training for the post and a willingness to continue training to manage the key areas and tasks outlined in the job description Equalities and Safer Recruitment Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of how this can be positively promoted within the school environment, both to students and staff Be able to demonstrate an understanding of the importance of forming and maintaining appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people	Have strong personal values, such as honesty and integrity, that provide a clear moral framework for professional conduct, and be able to show a clear understanding of the Christian ethos of the school	✓
training to manage the key areas and tasks outlined in the job description Equalities and Safer Recruitment Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of how this can be positively promoted within the school environment, both to students and staff Be able to demonstrate an understanding of the importance of forming and maintaining appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people	Be willing to contribute to the school's enrichment and extra-curricular programmes		✓
Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of how this can be positively promoted within the school environment, both to students and staff Be able to demonstrate an understanding of the importance of forming and maintaining appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people	Be prepared to undertake appropriate training for the post and a willingness to continue training to manage the key areas and tasks outlined in the job description	✓
and have a clear understanding of how this can be positively promoted within the school environment, both to students and staff Be able to demonstrate an understanding of the importance of forming and maintaining appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people	Equalities and Safer Recruitment	Essential	Desirable
appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people	Be able to clearly demonstrate that you are committed to the equality of opportunities and have a clear understanding of how this can be positively promoted within the school environment, both to students and staff	✓
Be willing to undergo an enhanced DBS Disclosure check ✓	Be able to demonstrate an understanding of the importance of forming and maintaining appropriate relationships and personal boundaries with children and young people	✓	